My Own Darling Wifie Mine:

Just received your darling Tuesday's letter, with the picture you enclosed and honey love, if anyone has the right to kick about being fooled as to the size of a letter, I have, for when I opened your previous letter, I thought sure it was your picture. Talk about being fooled! But, honey love, 2 weeks from to-day, please God, you will be on your way, eh, lovie? Just think, sort, how fast the time is getting and pretty soon, please God, we'll be kissing and hugging each other, eh? Honey love, you have no idea how I yearn for the time to come. Believe me, sweetheart, at the station, I'll just bite your nose off! I get so restless and impatient when I think of how fast the time is, you can hardly imagine! Oh, well, sweetest girl, please God, the time will soon come, and our letters will be a thing of the past.

I sure am glad that mondear is progressing so nicely. It's the best thing you can do, love, when you buy Dr. Kelly a gift, and as soon as you let me know, I'll write her a letter of thanks. Lovey, I sure am glad that you insisted upon mondear not going so often to the cemetery. That's what did her most harm. I just simply pray that she will be alright and leave the hospital pretty soon. How long do you think it will take her to be in, eh? I hope she will be able to leave before the 10th, or rather, by the 8th, when you are to leave. It sure would be fine if she could go away for a while. How can we arrange it, love? Let me know.

Sweetest, next week, Solomon is going to start on our rooms. Going to have the walls papered and everything made comfortable. We sure are going to have a nice comfy, little home, I can assure you. Uncle Morris said that because of your arrival, they are fixing up the garden for you and are going to plant about 300 tomatoe plants. You can just picture what kind of a garden its going to be. One or about the 5th, (I think it will be the 5th), Uncle Morris, Solomon & I are going to get the furniture. That time is going to be some busy week, what do you say?

Well, love, business has kind of slowed up, but hope it will soon pick up. My "tummy" is kind of better now but I think I need the best docta in the whole world to cure me, and that's you, my darling wifie, Tootsie, Tootsie, I sure do need and want you, and lonly hope and pray that nothing occurs to prevent you from leaving on the 8th.

Honey love, darling, how are you feeling? I suppose by the time you receive this "it" has visited you already. Love heart, be careful, and take things easy. Don't work too hard, hear?, and remember your promise to rest up as much as possible.

Must close now, darling, with all my love, hugs and kisses to you, my precious, sweetheart wifie,

Ever lovingly yours
Sibby
